

August 11, 2010

Dear Excell Families:

We hope you are all having a spectacular summer. As we prepare for our tenth year of operation, and our first day of school this year (Wednesday, September 1st, 2010) we want to update you on some important information for the beginning of the school year. Please read this letter carefully in its entirety, and keep it handy for easy reference. There are some very important dates coming up:

* Thursday, August 26th, 2010 – there will be a Middle School Orientation at 5:30 pm at Mighty Fortress International (6400 85th Ave. N. Brooklyn Park) for parents of 6th-8th grade students.

* Friday, August 27th, 2010 “Open Door” – K-5th grade teachers will be in their classrooms at the main campus (6510 Zane Ave. N. Brooklyn Park) from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm for parents and students to stop by and meet them. No appointments need be scheduled.

*Friday, August 27th, 2010 - There will be two parent orientation sessions for grades K-5, one at 11:00 am and the other at 2:30 pm. Parents should attend one of the two sessions.

Orientation attendance is mandatory for all families. These orientation sessions will give families pertinent information and updates regarding Excell Academy’s policies, transportation, classroom procedures and expectations, first day of school procedures, meal programs, and more.

* Remember that complete (approved) uniforms are required at Excell Academy. There are no exceptions. There will be a sale of remaining uniform stock during the “Open Door” day on August 27th, 2010. Limited quantities will be available.

* If you know of any families that want their children enrolled at Excell this school year, please urge them to enroll now. There are very few spaces open, and there is a waiting list for some grades.

We are looking forward to working with you to make this the most successful school year ever for you and your children!

Sincerely,

Excell Executive Leadership Team
